

Footsteps and Witnesses Lesbian and Gay Lifestories from Scotland

Edited by Bob Cant

Nobody is better qualified to do this than Bob Cant. His books, with their sensitive and enlightening recording of people's lives, in all their lived variety, have been genuinely important contributions to our sense of the past and our understanding of the present. Footsteps and Witnesses brings alive and illuminates a vital experience."

Jeffrey Weeks,
Professor of Sociology, London South Bank University.

- Foreword by Richard Holloway, patron of LGBT Youth Scotland.
- Launched in LGBT History Month (February 2008) with author events around Scotland.
- No other book on the market highlighting lesbian and gay life experiences in Scotland.

Originally published by Polygon in 1993, this new expanded edition of Footsteps and Witnesses is a fascinating document of lesbian and gay lifestories within a Scottish framework.

Praise for the first edition: "[the book] does not claim to be 'the' history of lesbian and gay communities in Scotland - rather the beginning of showing that lesbian and gay communities in Scotland have histories at all." The Scotsman "...breaks new ground as the first major attempt to give voice to gays and lesbians in Scotland." Scottish Local History.

Bob Cant has been a pioneer in bringing accounts of lesbian and gay life in Scotland to a wider audience. He is also the author of Invented Identities? Lesbians and Gays Talk About Migration.

Publication Date : 02/02/08

Lesbian & Gay Studies;
Scottish; Anthologies.

Extent: 174pp

£12.99

Paperback

ISBN: 978-0-9549185-6-9

Trade distribution
Booksource
Tel 0845 370 0067
customerservice@booksource.net

43-45 West Nicolson Street,
Edinburgh, EH8 9DB Tel/Fax: 0131 662 9112
Email: books@word-power.co.uk www.word-power.co.uk

WORD  POWER BOOKS