February is LGBT History Month!

We stopped the clause but the fight goes on!

What have we learned?

20 years ago Scotland ended government legislation banning teachers from ‘promoting’ homosexuality in schools. It’s time to reflect on two decades of change and answer the question: have we undone the damaging legacy of Section 28?